A Friendly Smile, A Cheerful Word An Efficient Worker . . .

All these phrases describe a friend with whom all Copiah-Lincoln students deal. A mother of two daughters and an active church worker, who has been superintendent of her young people's department for several years, she has served on the Copiah-Lincoln campus for the past nine years. Because of her congenial disposition and interest in the students of Copiah-Lincoln, the staff of THE CO-LIN TRILLIUM dedicates this 1963 edition to Mrs. Carl Thompson, assistant manager of Co-Lin Bookstore.

Mrs. Carl Thompson

Our President Takes Part in a Variety of Activities

Our president, F. M. Fortenberry, an active leader in educational, civic and religious circles, spends much of his extra time in other ways in addition to being administrator of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Agricultural High School.

A past president of Mississippi Junior College Association, he is now serving as a member of Mississippi Junior College Commission.

Other educational associations to which Mr. Fortenberry belongs include Mississippi School Administrators Association, Mississippi Education Association and National Education Association. He is vice chairman on the Commission of Studies and Accreditation of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This educator is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, national educational fraternity.

As a person interested in his fellow man, President Fortenberry belongs to Wesson Lions Club, Brookhaven Kiwanis Club and Mississippi Economic Council. He is Copiah county chairman of American Red Cross.

Active in church affairs, Mr. Fortenberry is a deacon at Wesson Baptist Church where he teaches a Sunday School.

President F. M. Fortenberry

What is a college? It is a place inhabited by students. What are students? They are individuals who shape the character of the college, who examine the heritage of the past, who use it as a foundation for the future. They are multi-purposed individuals making discoveries. Their days are filled with the uniqueness of the commonplace. What is a college? It is a place where a personality blossoms in its pursuit of fulfillment.

OUR COLLEGE

Copiah-Lincoln Junior College

Foreword

Here is what happened the first day of school. Freshmen took several tests. After they made out their schedules they registered. Before they attended classes they bought their books.

That was the first day. What did the future bring? To see what has happened since then, turn the pages of your 1963 Trillium and you will see the year's story at Copiah-Lincoln unfold.

Hall of Fame

Because of their superior scholarship, excellent character, fruitful leadership and rewarding contribution to the student body, the following graduating students are members of Copiah-Lincoln's Hall of Fame for 1962-1963.

Nominated openly, the three sophomores were selected recipients of Copiah-Lincoln's highest honor by both their fellow students and a faculty committee.

THE HOMECOMING COURT

LINEUP WAITS for signal to start parade.

QUEEN JACKIE leads line through Hazlehurst, here, and also Wesson and Brookhaven.

SPRY CHEERLEADERS prepare spectators for homecoming football contest with Perkinston's Bulldogs.

A SMILE from the queen greets persons sitting in the stand.

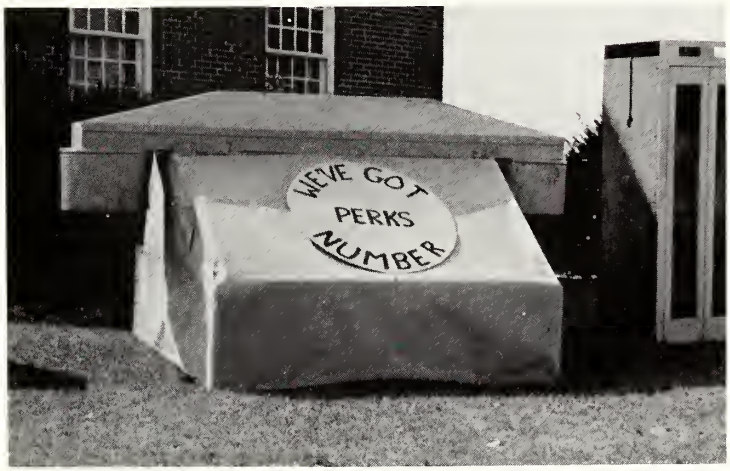
IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT of Copiah-Lincoln Alumni Association, Mrs. Roy Templet, crowns Jackie O'Neal homecoming queen.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS take part in pre-Homecoming festivities.

1962-63 ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OFFICERS, Mr. N. B. White, Mrs. Marvin Massey and Mrs. Grover Smith.

OLD TIMERS sign up.

FOLKS MEET again at reception.



STUDENTS WELCOME alumni with displays.

CREWS PREPARE autos for parade.

PARADE HERALDS day's homecoming events.

Mr. Claude Hester was school's night watchman for 9½ years.

Students give Mr. Hester a rod and reel.

Copiah-Lincoln Honors . . .

MRS. EVELYN OSWALT
and MR. CLAUDE HESTER

Faculty recognizes Mrs. Evelyn Oswalt, long-time librarian at Copiah-Lincoln.

Leading automechanic shops will hire these students after they complete automechanics course.

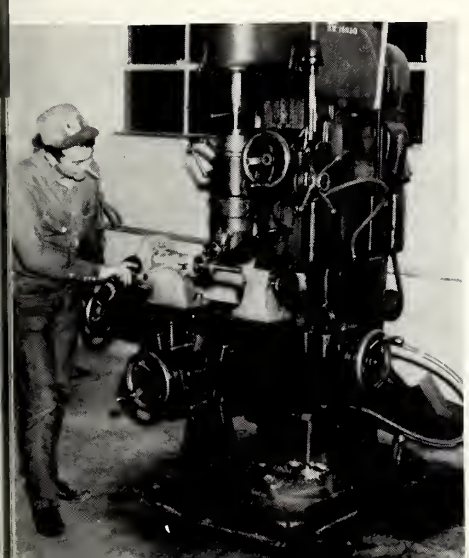
First opportunity for drafting technology in state was pioneered at Copiah-Lincoln.

Vocational-Technical Program Expands

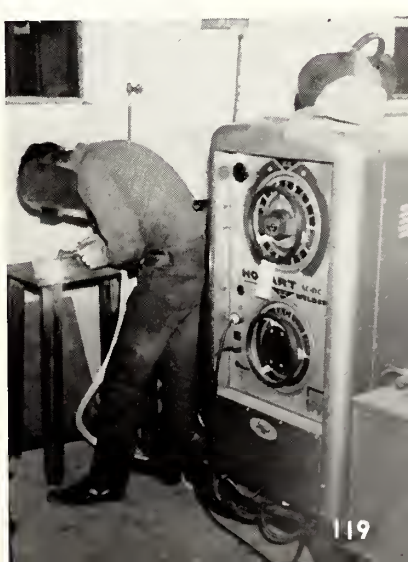
A variety of technology courses is offered to Copiah-Lincoln's area. As a regular student in the daytime or as an out of school student at nighttime, the student may choose from a variety of programs, including auto mechanics, building construction technology, machine technology, drafting technology, chemical technology and industrial technology.

With the help of area industries, chambers of commerce and the general trend of Mississippi in these areas, Copiah-Lincoln is expanding these services to citizens in her district.

Chemical technology students work in laboratory.



Machine technology student works in newest building on campus. Students can almost duplicate the machines they work with by using the same machines, say shop instructors.



Electric and acetylene welding are taught in the machine shop building.

What's the verdict?

Hi-Y

President, Bruce Varnado
Vice President, Tommy Cook
Secretary, Joe Mullins
Chaplain, Bob White

Hi-Y campaigns this year have emphasized the organization's motto, clean speech, clean sportsmanship, clean scholarship and clean living.

The Methodist Church, in an effort to minister to the needs of the student, has established Wesley Foundation on state-supported college and university campuses. Active participation in the Wesley Foundation helps the student interpret his new experience in terms of and in relation to a maturing Christian faith. It gives him a realization of the need for God and the need for the church at college, presents him a Christian foundation upon which he might base all discipline of learning, and strengthens the student's faith in God.

Members of foundation make use of new Wesley room.

ALTON SUTTON presides at Wesley meetings first semester.

Westminster Fellowship

The Westminster Fellowship is the link between the Presbyterian Church and students. It stresses spiritual growth through programs and informal discussions. The aim of Westminster Fellowship is to lead each member to deeper spiritual thinking and convictions and to promote the desire to know Christ and His will in the life of each.
